Subject: Permission for Seminar/Walk on International Anti-Corruption Day
(9th December), District Layyah

Dear Sir,

TI-Pakistan is a civil society organization dedicated to curbing corruption. Its primary objective is to counter corruption by spreading awareness on a national level.

Every year, on International Anti-Corruption Day, TI Pakistan organizes events all over Pakistan sensitizing citizens and giving them awareness on the importance of fighting corruption.

This year, TI Pakistan in collaboration with Aman Local Support Organization is planning to organize this event in your district. The session will be:

- Indoor session (seminar) or outdoor/open space session (walk) subject to your permission according to the SOPs
- Maximum number of participants 35 maintaining social distancing and wearing mask.

If the COVID-19 SOPs allow it, please grant us permission in the next two working days so that we can arrange the program.

TI Pakistan is striving to have Rule of Law in Pakistan which is the only way of eliminating corruption and have good governance in the country.

Regards

Ashfaq Ahmed
Project Coordinator
